OUR SPEAKER LARRY COWLES

Larry is a retired Electrical Engineer with a passion for Photography. He joined PSA (Photographic Society of America) in 1983 and has been active in entering exhibitions having achieved over 15,000 acceptances and winning hundreds of awards from 94 countries and was the first person to obtain Grand Master-Platinum, PSA's highest level. Larry is a past member of PPA and has competed at that level. He was the Managing Editor of the organization's publication, the PSA Journal for the last six years.

He is a frequent judge, teaches photography and is a mentor. While his interest has varied over the years, his photographic specialty is portraits.

Larry will discuss creating a character with your model that will do good in competitions.
